

Second Corinthians

Chapter 1

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;

Who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, by the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

Because as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our comfort also abounds by Christ.

And whether we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation, which is effective in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer:
or whether we are comforted, it is for your comfort and salvation.

And our hope in you is steadfast, knowing, that as you share in the sufferings, so shall you also share in the comfort.

Because we do not want, brothers, to have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia {Minor}, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, so much so that we despaired even of life:

But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God Who raises the dead:

Who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver:
in Whom we trust that He will yet deliver us;

You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

Because our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly towards you.

Because we write no other things to you, than what you read or acknowledge;
and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end;

As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

And in this confidence I decided to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit;

And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia to you, and by you to be brought on my way towards Judaea.

When I was therefore so minded, did I make this decision lightly?
or the things that I decide, do I decide according to the flesh, that with me there should be yes yes, and no no?

But as God is true, our word towards you was not yes and no.

Because the Son of God, Jesus Christ,
Who was preached among you by us, even by myself and Silvanus and Timothy, was not yes and no, but in Him was yes.

Because all the promises of God in Him are yes, and in Him Amen {let it be},
to the glory of God by us.

Now He Who established us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, is God;

Who has also sealed us, and given the guarantee of the Spirit in our hearts.

Moreover I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to spare you I have not come as yet to Corinth.

Not because we have rule over your faith, but are helpers for your joy:
because by faith you stand.

Second Corinthians Chapter 2

But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

Because if I make you sorry, who is he then who makes me glad, but the same who is made sorry by me?

And I wrote this same to you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from those of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

Because out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears;
not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly towards you.

But if anyone has caused grief, he has not grieved me, but in part:
that I may not overcharge you all.

Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted by many.

So that on the contrary you ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with too much sorrow.

Therefore I urge you that you would confirm your love towards him.

Because for this purpose I also wrote, that I might know your proof, whether you are obedient in all things.

To whom you forgive anything, I forgive also:
because if I forgave anything, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes I forgave it in the person of Christ;

Lest Satan should get an advantage over us:
because we are not ignorant of his devices.

Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened to me by the Lord,

I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother:
but taking my leave of them, I went from there into Macedonia.

Now thanks be to God, Who always causes us to triumph in Christ, and reveals the aroma of His knowledge by us in every place.

Because we are to God a sweet smell of Christ, in those who are saved, and in those who perish:

To the one we are the smell of death to death;

and to the other the smell of life to life.
And who is sufficient for these things?

Because we are not as many, who corrupt the word of God:
but of sincerity, and of God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.

Second Corinthians Chapter 3

Do we begin again to commend ourselves?
or do we need, as some others, letters of recommendation to you, or letters of recommendation from you?

You are our letter written in our hearts, known and read by all men:

Inasmuch as you are declared to be the letter of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God;
not in tablets of stone, but in fleshy tablets of the heart.

And we have such trust through Christ towards God:

Not that we are sufficient by ourselves to think anything of ourselves;
but our sufficiency is of God;

Who also has made us able ministers of the new testament;
not of the letter, but of the spirit:
because the letter kills, but the spirit gives life.

But if the ministry of death, written and engraved in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look upon the face of Moses because the glory of his appearance;
a glory which was to be done away with:

How shall the ministry of the spirit not be rather glorious?

Because if the ministry of condemnation is glory, much more does the ministry of righteousness exceed in glory.

Because even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, because of the glory that excels.

Because if that which is done away with was glorious, much more that which remains is glorious.

Since we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:

And not as Moses, who put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look upon to the end of that which is abolished:

But their minds were blinded:
because until this day the same veil remains untaken away in the reading of the old testament;
that veil is done away in Christ.

But even to this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their hearts.

Nevertheless when a heart shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.

Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

But we all, with an unveiled face seeing as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Second Corinthians Chapter 4

Therefore since we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we do not faint;

But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully;
but by revelation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

But if our gospel is hidden, it is hidden to those who are lost:

In whom the god of this world has blinded their minds who do not believe, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, Who is the image of God, should shine upon them.

Because we do not preach about ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord;
and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

Because God, Who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shone in our hearts, to the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed;
we are perplexed, but not in despair;

Persecuted, but not forsaken;
cast down, but not destroyed;

Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be revealed in our body.

Because we who live are constantly delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that Jesus' life also might be revealed in our mortal flesh.

So then death works in us, but life in you.

We having the same spirit of faith, accordingly as it is written,
I believed, and therefore I have spoken;
we also believe, and therefore speak;

Knowing that He Who raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

Because all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many abound to the glory of God.

For this cause we do not faint;

but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

Because our light affliction, which is but for a moment, works for us a far more exceedingly and eternal abundance of glory;

While we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen:
because the things which are seen are temporary;
but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Second Corinthians Chapter 5

Because we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle {our body} is dissolved, we have a building {body} made by God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Because in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our house which is from heaven:

If so being clothed we shall not be found naked.

Because we who are in this tabernacle {body} groan, being burdened: not because we want to be unclothed, but clothed, that mortality might be swallowed up by life.

Now He Who has made us for this very thing is God, Who also has given to us the guarantee of the Spirit.

Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

(Because we walk by faith, not by sight):

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

Therefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted by Him.

Because we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that everyone may receive the things done in his body, according to what he has done, whether it is good or bad.

Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made known to God; and I trust also are made known in your consciences.

Because we do not commend ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to boast on our behalf, that you may have something to answer for those who boast in appearances, and not in heart.

Because whether we are beside ourselves, it is for God: or whether we are sober, it is for your cause.

Because the love of Christ constrains us; because we so judge, that if one died for all, then all were dead:

And that He died for all, that those who live should not from this time forth live to themselves, but to Him Who died for them, and rose again.

Therefore from now on we do not know any man after the flesh:
yes, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet from now on we do not know Him any more in that way.

Therefore if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature:
old things have passed away;
indeed, all things have become new.

And all things are of God, Who has reconciled us to Himself by Jesus Christ, and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

To this end, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself, not holding their sins against them;
and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.

Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God urged you by us:
we in Christ's place urge you, be reconciled to God.

Because He has made Him to be sin for us, Who knew no sin;
that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him.

Second Corinthians Chapter 6

We then, as workers together with Him, urge you also that you not receive the grace of God in vain.

(Because He says,

I have heard you in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation I have nursed you:

indeed, now is the accepted time;
indeed, now is the day of salvation.)

Giving no offence in anything, that the ministry not be blamed:

But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings;

By pureness, by knowledge, by patience, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by un-pretended love,

By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

By honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report:
as deceivers, and yet true;

As unknown, and yet well known;
as dying, and, indeed, we live;
as disciplined, and not killed;

As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing;
as poor, yet making many rich;
as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

O you Corinthians, our mouths are open to you, our hearts are enlarged.

You are not restrained by us, but you are restrained by your own {worldly} affections.

Now for a reward in the same,
(I speak as to my children,)
be also enlarged
{continue to grow
[spiritually]}.

Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers:
because what fellowship does righteousness have with unrighteousness?

and what communion does light have with darkness?

And what agreement does Christ have with Belial {Satan}? or what part does he who believes have with an infidel {unbeliever}?

And what agreement does the temple of God have with idols?
because you are the temple of the living God;
as God has said,

I will live in them, and walk in them;
and I will be their God, and they shall be My people.

Therefore come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord, and do not touch any unclean thing;
and I will receive you,

And will be a Father to you, and you shall be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

Second Corinthians Chapter 7

Therefore having these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear {reverence} of God.

Receive us;
we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

I do not speak this to condemn you:
because I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.

Great is my boldness of speech towards you, great is my boasting for you:
I am filled with comfort, I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.

Because, when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; outside were fightings, inside were fears.

Nevertheless God, Who comforts those who are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

And not by his coming only, but by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent {zealous} mind towards me;
so that I rejoiced all the more.

Because though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent:
because I perceive that the same letter has made you sorry, though it was but for a season.

Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed to repentance:
because you were made sorry after a godly manner, that you might not be harmed by us in any way.

Because godly sorrow works repentance to salvation not to be repented of:
but the sorrow of the world works death.

Because see this same thing, that you sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it brought about in you, yes, what clearing of yourselves, yes, what indignation, yes, what fear, yes, what vigorous desire, yes, what zeal, yes, what revenge!
In all things you have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

Therefore, though I wrote to you, I did not do it for the one who had done the wrong, nor for the cause of the one who was wronged, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.

Therefore we were comforted in your comfort:
yes, and we are exceedingly all the more joyful because of the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

Because if I have boasted anything to him of you, I am not ashamed;
but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found to be truth.

And his inward affection is more abundant towards you, while he remembers your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him.

I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

Second Corinthians Chapter 8

Furthermore, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

How that in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their generosity.

Because to their ability, I bear record, yes, and beyond their ability they were willing to give of themselves;

Begging us with much urging that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.

And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God.

So much so that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

Therefore, as you abound in everything, in faith, and speech, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love towards us, see that you abound in this grace also.

I do not speak by commandment, but because of the earnestness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.

Because you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though He was rich, yet for your sakes He became poor, that you through His poverty might be rich.

And in this I give my advice:
because this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also willingly a year ago.

Now therefore perform its works; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

Because if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man has, and not according to that he does not have.

Because I do not mean that other men be eased, and you burdened:

But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their needs, that their abundance also may be a supply for your needs:
that there may be equality:

As it is written,

He who had gathered much had nothing left over;

and he who had gathered little had no lack.

But thanks be to God, Who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

Because indeed he accepted the encouragement;
but being more sincere, of his own accord he went to you.

And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;

And not only that, but who was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:

Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:

Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you:
or our brothers be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.

Therefore show them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

Second Corinthians Chapter 9

Concerning the ministering to the saints, it is unnecessary for me to write to you:

Because I know the sincerity of your mind, because of which I boast of you to those in Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago;
and your zeal has provoked very many.

Yet I have sent the brothers, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this matter;
that, as I said, you may be ready:

Lest haply if those of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we not to say, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

Therefore I thought it necessary to encourage the brothers, that they would go before to you, and collect beforehand your bounty, of which you had notice beforehand, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness {greed; lust, want things that belong to others}.

But this I say,
He who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly;
and he who sows bountifully shall also reap bountifully.

Every man accordingly as he determines in his heart, so let him give;
not grudgingly, or of necessity:
because God loves a cheerful giver.

And God is able to make all grace abound towards you;
that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

(As it is written,

He has dispersed abroad;
He has given to the poor:
His righteousness remains forever.

Now he who ministers seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness);

Being enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which through us causes thanksgiving to God.

Because the administration of this service not only supplies the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings to God;

While by the experiment of this ministry they glorify God for your professed submission to the gospel of Christ, and for your generous distribution to them, and to all men;

And by their prayer for you, who long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.

Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift.

Second Corinthians Chapter 10

Now I Paul myself urge {ask; encourage} you by the humility and gentleness of Christ, who in presence is lowly among you, but being absent am bold towards you:

But I urge {ask; encourage} you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, with which I think to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

Because though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

(Because the weapons of our warfare are not carnal {fleshly; worldly}, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds);

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

Do you look on things after the outward appearance?

If any man trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

Because though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord has given us for encouragement, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:

That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

Because, they say, his letters, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, so will we be also in deed when we are present.

Because we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some who commend themselves:

but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

But we will not boast of things outside our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God has distributed to us, a measure to reach even to you.

Because we do not stretch ourselves beyond our measure, as though we did not reach to you: because we have come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:

Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

But he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord.

Because it is not he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Second Corinthians Chapter 11

I wish to God you could bear with me a little in my folly:
and indeed bear with me.

Because I am jealous over you with godly jealousy:
because I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.

But I fear, lest by any means, as the snake deceived Eve through his subtlety {craftiness; deception}, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

Because if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if you receive another spirit, which you have not received, or another gospel, which you have not accepted, you might well bear with him.

Because I suppose I was not a least bit behind the very greatest of the apostles.

But though I lack eloquence in speech, yet not in knowledge;
but we have been thoroughly revealed among you in all things.

Have I committed an offense in abasing {putting down} myself that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?

I robbed other churches, taking wages from them, to do you service.

And when I was present with you, and had need, I borrowed from no man:
because that which was lacking to me the brothers who came from Macedonia supplied:
and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so I will keep myself.

As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

Why?
because I do not love you?
God knows.

But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion; that in which they boast, they may be found even as we.

Because such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

And no wonder;
because Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also are transformed as the ministers of righteousness;
whose end shall be according to their works.

I say again,
Let no man think me a fool;
if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

Since many boast after the flesh, I will boast also.

Because you suffer fools gladly, since you yourselves are wise.

Because you suffer, if a man brings you into bondage, if a man devours you, if a man take from you, if a man exalts himself, if a man strikes you on the face.

I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak.
However in whatever anyone is bold,
(I speak foolishly,)
I am bold also.

Are they Hebrews?
so am I.
Are they Israelites?
so am I.
Are they the seed of Abraham?
so am I.

Are they ministers of Christ?
(I speak as a fool)
I am more;
in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often.

Of the Jews five times I received thirty-nine stripes.

Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

In travels often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen {ungodly},
in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers;

In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

Beside those things that are outside, that which comes upon me daily, the cares of all the churches.

Who is weak, and I am not weak?
who is offended, and I do not burn?

If I need to boast, I will boast of the things which concern my weaknesses.

The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Who is blessed forevermore, knows that I do not lie.

In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desired to apprehend me:

And through a window in a basket I was let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

Second Corinthians Chapter 12

Without a doubt it is not beneficial for me boast.
I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

I knew a man in Christ {who} more than fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell:
God knows);
such a one caught up to the third heaven.

And I knew such a man,
(whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell:
God knows);

How he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to speak.

Of such a one I will boast:
yet of myself I will not boast, but in my weaknesses.

Because though I would desire to boast, I shall not be a fool;
because I will say the truth:
but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he sees me to be, or that he hears of me.

And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

For this thing I asked the Lord three times, that it might depart from me.

But He said to me,

My grace is sufficient for you:
because My strength is made perfect in weakness.

Most gladly therefore I will rather boast in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake:
because when I am weak, then I am strong.

I have become a fool in boasting;
you have compelled me:
because I ought to have been commended by you:
because in nothing am I behind the very greatest of apostles, although I am nothing.

Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

Because what is it in which you were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you?
forgive me this wrong.

Indeed, the third time I am ready to come to you;
and I will not be burdensome to you:
because I do not seek what is yours, but you:
because the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you;
though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.

But so be it, I did not burden you:
nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with trickery.

Did I make a gain of you by any of those whom I sent to you?

I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother.
Did Titus make a gain of you?
Did we not walk in the same spirit?
Did we not walk in the same steps?

Again, do you think that we excuse ourselves to you?
we speak before God in Christ:
but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your encouragement.

Because I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would desire, and that I shall not be found by you such as you would want:
lest there be debates, envyings, wraths {anger}, strifes, backbitings {back-talking}, whisperings {gossiping}, swellings, tumults:

And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall grieve over many who have already sinned, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication {sex outside of marriage} and sexual immorality which they have committed.

Second Corinthians Chapter 13

This is the third time I am coming to you.

In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

I told you before, and forewarn you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them who until now have sinned, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare:

Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which towards you is not weak, but is mighty in you.

Because though He was crucified through weakness, yet He lives by the power of God. Because we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of God towards you.

Examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith; prove your own selves.

Do you not know your own selves, how Jesus Christ is in you, unless you are castaways?

But I trust that you shall know that we are not castaways.

Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we are as castaways.

Because we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

Because we are glad, when we are weak, and you are strong; and this we also wish, even your perfection.

Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord has given me for encouragement, and not to destruction.

Finally, brothers, farewell.

Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

Greet one another with a holy kiss.

All the saints salute you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

Amen

{let it be}.
