

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 1

(1) The song of songs, which is Solomon's.
(2) Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better than wine.
(3) Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the virgins love thee.
(4) Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love thee.
(5) I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.
(6) Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept.
(7) Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions?

Chapter 1

(1) The song of songs, which is Solomon's.
(2) Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: because your love is better than wine.
(3) Because of the aroma of your good perfume your name is as perfume poured forth, therefore the virgins love you.
(4) Draw me, we will run after you: the king has brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in you, we will remember your love more than wine: the upright love you.
(5) I am black, but beautiful, O you daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.
(6) Do not look upon me, because I am black, because the sun has looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper of the vineyards; but my own vineyard I have not kept.
(7) Tell me, O you whom my soul loves, where you feed, where you cause your flock to rest at noon: because why should I be as one who turns aside by the flocks of your companions?

* The song of songs is from Solomon himself. An attempt has been made here to distinguish between the words of Solomon's wife (4:6,9-12; 5:1) and Solomon himself, with Solomon's words in bold print. In some cases it is easy to tell which one is speaking, in other cases it is not as clear. Since the wife speaks the most in the text, where there is some question who is speaking, I have assumed the wife is doing the talking. Solomon had many wives {at the time Solomon wrote this he had sixty wives, eighty concubines, and many virgins -- see 6:8 -- later he would have 700 wives and 300 concubines - see I Ki. 11:3}. This particular wife is black (v. 1:5,6) and probably from Ethiopia or some other African country. Her name is given in 6:13 as "Shulamite" meaning "peaceful". The text also can be interpreted symbolically as an expression of God's love for His people. Many interpret "black" as being God's people in their sin apart from Him -- however, throughout scripture sin is always referred to as scarlet or crimson red {the color of blood}[Is. 1:18] - never as black!!

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

(8) If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents.

(9) I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots.

(10) Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck with chains of gold.

(11) We will make thee borders of gold with studs of silver.

(12) While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth forth the smell thereof.

(13) A bundle of myrrh is my wellbeloved unto me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts.

(14) My beloved is unto me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Engedi.

(15) Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes.

(16) Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is green.

(17) The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

Chapter 2

(1) I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys.

(2) As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

King James Paraphrase

(8) If you do not know, O you fairest among women, go your way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.

(9) I have compared you, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's chariots

(10) Your cheeks are beautiful with rows of jewels, your neck with chains of gold.

(11) We will make for you borders of gold with studs of silver.

(12) While the king sits at his table, my perfume sends forth its smell.

(13) A bundle of myrrh is my well-beloved to me; he shall lie all night between my breasts.

(14) My beloved is to me as a bouquet of henna flowers in the vineyards of En-gedi.

(15) Indeed, you are fair {beautiful}, my love; indeed, you are fair {beautiful}; you have doves' eyes.

(16) Indeed, you are fair {beautiful}, my beloved, yes, pleasant: also our bed is green.

(17) The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.

Chapter 2

(1) I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys.

(2) As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(3) As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. (4) He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love. (5) Stay me with flagons, comfort me with apples: for I am sick of love. (6) His left hand is under my head, and his right hand doth embrace me. (7) I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please. (8) The voice of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills. (9) My beloved is like a roe or a young hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, shewing himself through the lattice. (10) My beloved spake, and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away. (11) For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; (12) The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land;	(3) As the apple tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. (4) He brought me to the banqueting house, and his banner over me was love. (5) Keep me with raisin cakes, comfort me with apples: because I am sick with love. (6) His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me. (7) I charge you, O you daughters of Jerusalem, by the does, and by the deer of the field, that you not stir up, nor awake my love, until he pleases. (8) The voice of my beloved! Look he comes leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills. (9) My beloved is like a doe or a fawn: look, he stands behind our wall, he looks forth at the windows, showing himself through the lattice. (10) My beloved spoke, and said to me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away. (11) Because, indeed, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; (12) The flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds has come, and the voice of the turtle dove is heard in our land;

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

(13) The fig tree putteth forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

(14) O my dove, that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely.

(15) Take us the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes.

(16) My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies.

(17) Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bether.

Chapter 3

(1) By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

(2) I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not.

(3) The watchmen that go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth?

King James Paraphrase

(13) The fig tree puts forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.

(14) O my dove, that are in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see your face, let me hear your voice; because your voice is sweet, and your face is beautiful.

(15) Let us catch the foxes, the little foxes, that spoil the vines: because our vines have tender grapes.

(16) My beloved is mine, and I am his: he feeds among the lilies.

(17) Until the day breaks, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be like a deer or a fawn upon the mountains of Bether.

Chapter 3

(1) By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loves: I sought him, but I did not find him.

(2) I will rise now, and go about the city in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loves: I sought him, but I did not find him.

(3) The watchmen who go about the city found me: to whom I said, Have you seen him whom my soul loves?

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(4) It was but a little that I passed from them, but I found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me. (5) I charge you, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please. (6) Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? (7) Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the valiant of Israel. (8) They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night. (9) King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon. (10) He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem. (11) Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.	(4) It was but a little while that I passed from them, that I found him whom my soul loves: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her who conceived me. (5) I charge you, O you daughters of Jerusalem, by the does, and by the deer of the field, that you not stir up, nor awake my love, until he pleases. (6) Who is this who comes out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? (7) Look at Solomon's bed; sixty valiant men are around it, of the most valiant of Israel. (8) They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man has his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night. (9) King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon. (10) He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its covering of purple, the middle of it being paved with love, for the daughters of Jerusalem. (11) Go forth, O you daughters of Zion, and look at king Solomon with the crown with which his mother crowned him in the day of his weddings, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 4

(1) Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that appear from mount Gilead.

(2) Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof every one bear twins, and none is barren among them.

(3) Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks.

(4) Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men.

(5) Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

(6) Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

(7) Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee.

(8) Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

Chapter 4

(1) Indeed, you are fair {beautiful}, my love; indeed, you are fair; you have doves' eyes within your locks: your hair is as a flock of goats, that appears from mount Gilead.

(2) Your teeth are like a flock of sheep that are evenly sheared, which came up from the washing; of which everyone bears twins, and none is barren among them.

(3) Your lips are like a thread of scarlet, and your speech is beautiful: your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate within your locks.

(4) Your neck is like the tower of David built for an armoury, upon which there hang a thousand shields, all shields of mighty men.

(5) Your two breasts are like two fawns that are twins, which feed among the lilies.

(6) Until the day breaks, and the shadows flee away, I will go up to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.

(7) You are without blemish, my love; there is no spot in you.

(8) Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version	King James Paraphrase
(9) Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck. (10) How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine! and the smell of thine ointments than all spices! (11) Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon. (12) A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a fountain sealed. (13) Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard, (14) Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices: (15) A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon. (16) Awake, O north wind; and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.	(9) You have ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; you have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, with one chain of your neck. (10) How fair your love is, my sister, my spouse! how much better is your love than wine! and the smell of your perfume than all spices! (11) Your lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under your tongue; and the smell of your clothes is like the smell of Lebanon. (12) My sister is an enclosed garden, my spouse; a spring closed up, a fountain sealed. (13) Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard, (14) Spikenard and saffron; calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices: (15) A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon. (16) Awake, O north wind; and come, you south wind; blow upon my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat its pleasant fruits.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase

Chapter 5

(1) I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved.

(2) I sleep, but my heart waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

(3) I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

(4) My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my bowels were moved for him.

(5) I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

(6) I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

(7) The watchmen that went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me.

(8) I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love.

Chapter 5

(1) I have come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yes, drink abundantly, O beloved.

(2) I sleep, but my heart awakes: it is the voice of my beloved that knocks, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: because my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night.

(3) I have put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them?

(4) My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my heart moved for him.

(5) I rose up to open to my beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock.

(6) I opened to my beloved; but my beloved had left, and was gone: my soul failed when he spoke: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.

(7) The watchmen who went about the city found me, they struck me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took my veil away from me.

(8) I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, if you find my beloved, that you tell him, that I am sick with love.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase

(9) What is thy beloved more than another beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us?

(10) My beloved is white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand.

(11) His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

(12) His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set.

(13) His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

(14) His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

(15) His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his countenance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

(16) His mouth is most sweet: yea, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Chapter 6

(1) Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with thee.

(2) My beloved is gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

(3) I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

(9) Who is your beloved more than another beloved, O you fairest among women? who is your beloved more than another beloved, that you so charge us?

(10) My beloved is white and handsome, the chiefest among ten thousand.

(11) His head is as the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven.

(12) His eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set.

(13) His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh.

(14) His hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires.

(15) His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: his appearance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

(16) His mouth is most sweet: yes, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.

Chapter 6

(1) Where has your beloved gone, O you fairest among women? where has your beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with you.

(2) My beloved has gone down into his garden, to the beds of spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

(3) I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feeds among the lilies.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

(13) Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies.

Chapter 7

(1) How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

(2) Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.

(3) Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins.

(4) Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bathrabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus.

(5) Thine head upon thee is like Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is held in the galleries.

(6) How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for delights!

(7) This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts to clusters of grapes.

King James Paraphrase

(13) Return, return, O Shulamite {peacefull};^a return, return, that we may look upon you. What will you see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies.

Chapter 7

(1) How beautiful are your feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of your thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cunning workman.

(2) Your navel is like a round goblet, which lacks no liquor: your belly is like a heap of wheat set about with lilies.

(3) Your two breasts are like two young fawns that are twins.

(4) Your neck is as a tower of ivory; your eyes like the fish pools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bathrabbim: your nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

(8) I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples;
(9) And the roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak.
(10) I am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me.
(11) Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.
(12) Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves.
(13) The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

Chapter 8

(1) O that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised.
(2) I would lead thee, and bring thee into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

King James Paraphrase

(8) I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will take hold of its branches: now also your breasts will be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of your nose like apples;
(9) And the roof of your mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goes down sweetly, causing the lips of those who are asleep to speak.
(10) I am my beloved's, and his desire is towards me.
(11) Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages.
(12) Let us get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourishes, whether the tender grapes appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there I will give you my love.
(13) The mandrakes give a smell, and at our gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.

Chapter 8

(1) O that you were as my brother, who nursed the breasts of my mother! when I should find you outside, I would kiss you; yes, I should not be despised.
(2) I would lead you, and bring you into my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause you to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

(3) His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.

(4) I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he please.

(5) Who is this that cometh up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee.

(6) Set me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame.

(7) Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.

(8) We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

(9) If she be a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar.

(10) I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then was I in his eyes as one that found favour.

King James Paraphrase

(3) His left hand would be under my head, and his right hand would embrace me.

(4) I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that you not stir up, nor awake my love, until he pleases.

(5) Who is this who comes up from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised you up under the apple tree: there your mother brought you forth: there she brought you forth who gave birth to you.

(6) Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm: because love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: its coals are coals of fire, which have a most violent flame.

(7) Many waters cannot quench love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would be completely consumed.

(8) We have a little sister, and she has no breasts: what shall we do for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for?

(9) If she was a wall, we would build upon her a palace of silver: and if she was a door, we would enclose her with boards of cedar.

(10) I am a wall, and my breasts like towers: then I was in his eyes as one who had found favor.

{22} Song of Solomon

King James 1769 Version

King James Paraphrase

(11) Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon; he let out the vineyard unto keepers; every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

(12) My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: thou, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.

(13) Thou that dwellest in the gardens, the companions hearken to thy voice: cause me to hear it.

(14) Make haste, my beloved, and be thou like to a roe or to a young hart upon the mountains of spices.

(11) Solomon had a vineyard at Baalhamon; he let out the vineyard to keepers; everyone for its fruit was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.

(12) My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: you, O Solomon, must have a thousand, and those who keep its fruit two hundred.

(13) You who live in the gardens, the companions listen to your voice: cause me to hear it.

(14) Come quickly, my beloved, and be like a deer or a young fawn upon the mountains of spices.
